Purpose of the Policy

The Wainfleet Township Public Library is committed to facilitate sharing of community information to patrons and residents. The Library will display pamphlets, flyers, newspapers, posters and other free material in accordance with the library's mission statement and the Canadian Library Association's Statement on Intellectual Freedom. This does not imply approval or endorsement of any of the material posted.

Guidelines

1. Only material from registered non-profit groups will be accepted. No commercial, individual or personal material will have access.
2. The Library does not accept responsibility for returning material.
3. Library staff shall monitor the bulletin board(s) on a regular basis to ensure notices are current, posting of old events are removed and/or unauthorized notices are removed.
4. Except for sales or fundraising events co-sponsored by the Library, and authorized by the CEO beforehand, no sales are permitted in the Library.
